

our story

We love food. Most of all, we love beautifully prepared, authentic, Latin fare. We know there are plenty of places to find a taco in the area. But ours are made with love, which is why we'll post photos of our food with the hashtag #tacolove. Furthermore, we offer traditional dishes and rotisserie chickens - all made with that same love. We want all people to experience beautiful food at reasonable prices in an environment that feels like home. So bring your friends, bring your family, and yes - bring your own tequila - and enjoy some heartfelt food in the heart of Easton.
